Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

When I was 22, I went on a pilgrimage to Rome for the Jubilee Year of 2000. I was traveling light with just a backpack, one blue shirt and black pants, little money, and no Italian. I had a few close friends and one goal: to reach the Eternal City. Despite the challenges and deprivations, I felt alive in a way I had never known before.

When do you feel most alive? I'd wager it's not when you're most comfortable or surrounded by stuff. Rather, it's when your life is aimed at something great; when you're on a meaningful and challenging journey with good friends.

That's the image the Magi give us in today's Gospel. They set out from the East not with certainty, but with hope. They study the signs, discipline their attention, and journey together, offering the best they have when they find the newborn King.

The Church gives us their story at the start of the year to reawaken something in us. We are not meant to drift. We're meant to journey as pilgrims. The Jubilee Year of 2025 may have ended, but our pilgrimage has not. Like the magi, the closer we get to Christ, the more alive we become.

— Father John Muir

Epiphany of the Lord

Epiphany, or Three Kings Day, is traditionally celebrated on the twelfth day after Christmas, January 6. Still, in the United States, it is celebrated on Sunday between January 2 and January 8.

The Blessing of the Home

There are many traditions associated with the Epiphany. Blessing of the Home on the Feast of the Epiphany is one. Pastor sometimes provides it. When there is no blessing of houses in a parish on Epiphany, a family member may go through the various rooms of the home sprinkling holy water obtained from the Church. Please bring a small jar to Mass and fill it from the Holy Water font.

The Chalking of the Doors

The chalking of the doors is a centuries-old practice worldwide, though it appears to be someone less well-known in the United States. It is an easy tradition to adopt and a great practice whereby we dedicate our year to God from its very outset, asking His blessing on our homes and all who live, work, or visit them.

These letters are inscribed between the numbers of the year of the ceremony.

The children in the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd at Saint Patrick Catholic Church participate in this tradition— chalking the door to the atrium. We invite you to join in an Epiphany Blessing for your home. Click here to see the Epiphany Blessing used in the atrium at Saint Patrick Catholic Church.

Bless Your Door on Epiphany

The gospel tells us that the magi found Christ “on entering the house.” The door to your home is a holy threshold. You can bless those who come in and go out by inscribing the first two numbers of the year above the door in chalk + C + M + B + the last two numbers of the year. Tradition tells us that the letters represent the magi’s names: Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar. Adolph Adam points out that it may also mean “Christus mansionem benedicat” or “may Christ bless this dwelling.” Blessing your door in January is appropriate – janua means “door,” and the first month is the door to the new year.

20 + C + M + B + 25

After inscribing the doorway, say this prayer:

*God in Bethlehem and Cana,
God of Jordan’s leaping waters,
In baptism, you bring us
Into your family.
You wed us and embrace us
As your Beloved.
May we fill this place
With kindness to one another,
With hospitality to guests,
And with abundant care*
