Blessing for World Mission Sunday

O God,
You never cease to call us to Yourself, bless the mission fields where we sow, tend, and reap. Give us your grace and strength as we share Your love with families and friends, strangers and sojourners. Give us the right words, the right inspirations, the right invitations, the right love. Your love, shared.
Amen.

October 18, 2026 Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 22:15-21

Occasionally, I'll slip into a parish I've never visited before, pick up the bulletin, and find one of my Gospel reflections. My heart usually swells with a bit of affection for my creation. I imprint a bit of myself into my little "literary labors of love." Anyone who has created something — a piece of writing, a garden, a meal, a child — knows that feeling. We love the things into which we put ourselves. We are happy when they return to us.

With this in mind, listen to Jesus' classic line in this Sunday's Gospel: "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God" (Matthew 22:21). He presents this little riddle to deepen the theme from taxes to human beings. A Roman coin bears Caesar's image, so it belongs to Caesar. Therefore, he has a legitimate claim to it. Fair enough. But what belongs to God? What bears His image? Every human being. God has imprinted Himself on every person. Which means everyone — including Caesar — belongs entirely to Him. Jesus, who is God's perfect image, has come to draw everyone back to God.

We can be tempted to imagine that our lives are made up of "things for God" and "things not for God." The good news is that no such division is possible because everything in life is a gift from God to us. Therefore, all is meant to be placed at the service of God's kingdom. He loves everything He has created. We have the privilege of giving it all back to Him.

— Father John Muir

18 de octubre de 2026 XXIX Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Mateo 22:15-21

"Devuelvan, pues, al César las cosas del César y a Dios lo que le corresponde a Dios" (Mateo 22:21). Con esta respuesta, Jesús calla a las personas que lo querían poner a prueba para desacreditarlo públicamente, tendiéndole una trampa para que cayera. Pero Jesús clarifica su pregunta y dice claramente lo que se debe hacer en cada caso. ¿Qué imagen llevamos en nuestro corazón: la del César o la de Dios? El Evangelio nos invita hoy a saber discernir nuestras prioridades, a no confundir a Dios con el César de nuestros caprichos. Dios está por encima de todo eso. Somos imagen de Dios, grabada el día de nuestro bautismo. Debemos ser creyentes a tiempo completo, en todos los niveles, públicos y privados, en todo lo que hacemos y con todos los que nos rodean.

"El dinero no hay que demonizarlo en sentido absoluto. El dinero sirve para llevar adelante muchas cosas buenas, muchos trabajos, para desarrollar la humanidad. Lo que hay que condenar, en cambio, es su uso distorsionado" (Papa Francisco, 21-10-2013). Catequesis de hoy: darnos cuenta de que todo lo que pasa en el mundo es inferior al Reino de Dios. El dominio de Dios es la justicia y la misericordia que ejerce sobre toda persona. Entonces, no hay que confundir las cosas. Dar a Dios lo que le corresponde está basado en el amor al prójimo, dando amor y generosidad, lo cual es todo lo contrario a lo que el mundo exige. Nuestra energía y nuestros talentos siempre deben ser dirigidos a los hermanos y a Dios.
